Much about nothing had many illustrations before the "humorous William's," day, and each return of the year projected new scenes. So the electric light at Gettysburg comes in as a short one. Speaking of it he said: "Congress will probably be in continuous session until August 15, 1864, if not longer." Representative Wilson, of West Virginia, the gentleman who is thought to stand the best chance of being the chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the House, should Mr. Springer not get it again, also thinks the extra session will run into the regular session and that the latter will be an unusually long one. Mr. Wilson thinks the tariff will be taken up just as soon as the Ways and Means committee is announced by Speaker Crisp, and it is expected that will be immediately after the House goes through the formality of re-electing Mr. Crisp Speaker.

Many mistakes have been made concerning the alleged antagonism between the administration and the slave Democrats in Congress. Representative Wheeler, of Alabama, is and has been for years a silver Democrat, and this is the way he expressed his antagonism: "I have unbounded confidence in President Cleveland, Secretary Carlisle and the Democratic party. Mr. Cleveland struck the key-note in his letter of acceptance when he demanded legislation which would give adequate money for our business needs, and also legislation which would insure the proper distribution of this money throughout the country. Under his wise leadership we will be able to frame a measure which will be satisfactory to all the interests of our land."

100 Years Old.
In September of this year the capitol at Washington will be 100 years old. On September 18, 1793, the corner-stone was laid by Washington. The anniversary of its hundredth birthday will be celebrated at the city of Washington in the winter, stating that the bank had been taken charge of the Comptroller of Currency. In president J. S. Critch, one of the best known金融家 in the west, the President of the bank stated that the assets will amount somewhere between two and three millions. The bank was considered as sound as any in the southwest. It is thought that the depositors will receive nothing less than the face value of the stock. The National Bank of Kansas City was an offshoot of the North and Ohio, which was the first banking establishment of Kansas City. In 1862 the bank removed to New York city where it failed in the panic of 1873, but afterwards paid up in full. The following year Northern & Ohio returned to Kansas City and in 1875 they organized the National Bank of Kansas City.

BURIED TO DEATH WITH KEROSENE.—Mrs. Lizzie Ryan, of Cumberland, was fatally burned Thursday forenoon while attempting to clean a cook stove with oil. The fire had apparently gone out, but the stove was still hot, when Mrs. Ryan poured some oil on it, intending to polish it. She ignited when she touched the stove and a second the oil in the can, which she held in her hand, exploded. The woman ran out of the house, with her clothing afire. She reached the home of her mother-in-law, now, by neighbors extinguished the fire, but then Mrs. Ryan was burned beyond recognition. Two physicians were summoned, but the case was hopeless and the patient died at 2 p.m. Mrs. Ryan was formerly Miss Lizzie McMahan, daughter of Frank McMahan, the present police inspector of Allegany county.—Sun.

The following is from the column of the G. A. R. Journal of Utica, N. Y., for the signature of its Editor:

Pensions Issued.
A statement prepared at the pension bureau shows that between April 1 last, when the present administration of the bureau took formal direction of its affairs, and July 1, 17,044 original certificates of all kinds were issued. Of these 2,354 were invalid certificates under the act of June 27, 1860, and 9,036 valid certificates under the same act, making a total of 11,297 original certificates issued for the first three months of Democratic power.

I have not all of one bottle yet. I suffered from asthma for twelve years, experiencing the most distressing dropsy in the throat peculiar to that disease, and was bedfast almost daily. I tried various remedies with little success. At last I turned to Dr. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cure, and was greatly relieved. 75 cents. Sold and recommended by J. M. Huber, Druggist, Gettysburg.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Summer Outing of the Veterans

A LIVELY CAMP.—East Cemetery Hill is the scene of encampment of the G. A. R. of Pennsylvania, where the veterans of the State are assembled to enjoy their summer outing and revive the memories of their experiences of battle and camp a quarter of a century and more ago. Assistant Quartermaster General Levering has been here for a week, and has left nothing to make the quarters the most comfortable possible. The camp is composed of 170 tents, and is ample for those who have already arrived and those who will be during the week.

The camp has been christened in honor of Ex President Hayes. Tents on both roads brought posts and delegations from various parts of the State on Saturday, the headquarters party arriving over the Reading by special late in the evening and were escorted to camp by the headquarters band, the silver concert band of Hanover. The following Department officers are present: Commandant, Thos. G. Sample, Anthony, Senior Vice Commander, Chas. F. Calvert, Eastern; Junior Vice Commander, J. C. Calvert, Hollidaysburg; Asst. Adjutant Gen., Samuel P. Town, Phila.; Ass't Quartermaster Gen., Abram Levering, Phila.; Dept Inspector, C. A. Suydam, Phila., and Dept Chaplain Wm. W. Sayers, Reading.

The "Ghosts" of Etowah, the "Hawks" of Marietta, and the "Doves" of Columbus were among the early arrivals. Later came the "Lambs," "Bears" and "Sunflowers" of Philadelphia with their numbers and accompanied by their Post ensign which are being used for the entertainment of the camp generally.

Sunday morning the camp had a throng of visitors and Chaplain Sayers conducted an impromptu song service at headquarters. At 10 o'clock, headed by the band, the headquarters and veterans marched to the Rotunda in the National Cemetery, where the usual services were held, led by Chaplain Sayers and opened with prayer by Rev. O. Stockton, of Baltimore. After several appropriate hymns in which the entire audience joined, Mrs. Tatton, of Phila., for singing an organ accompaniment, the Chaplain delivered an eloquent and impressive sermon, his theme being "Honorable Stars," and his text Gal 6:17. At the conclusion of the sermon a number of hymns were sung during which Mrs. Tatton, a popular daughter of the Camp, sang a solo in fine style. The appearance in regard to horses frightening proved to have had little, as both town and country horses as a rule, tend to it kindly and but few cases of trouble are reported.

We understand that a committee of gentle men from Ennismore are here to confer with Mr. Hoffe relative to continuing the road to that place.

MORE AVOCADOES.

In pursuance of instructions by the Memorial Association Col J. B. Bachelder, member of its directors has been for some time engaged in surveying three avenues decided upon by the Association. In view of the recent decision of the acting Attorney General of the United States giving the Commissioners power to take and condemn land under the right of eminent domain, Col Nicholson, of the Commission, has been in communication with the War Department on the subject. No action by the Commission which is now in session here, has been taken.

LAST EVENING THE COMMISSIONERS DRAVE PARADE.—Instead of the usual mock dress parade with Asst. Quartermaster Gen. Levering as commander. During the evening the "Ghosts" of Etowah presented their team of goats to the "Lambs" of Phila., as a token of their esteem. After the parade a camp fire was held at headquarters. Col Roselli presiding, with addresses by colonels Sample, Chassey and McCormick with a fine solo by Miss Sample.

The Western part of the State is not as strongly represented as was expected owing to the failure to make arrangements for special rates.

The Reserve veterans held their meeting at Camp yesterday afternoon, but owing to the rather slow attendance no business was transacted and after a pleasant reunion they adjourned to meet at Willsport on September 1st.

THE RESERVE.—The Battlefield Memorial Association at Gettysburg on July 4th last I introduced a resolution providing for the construction of three new avenues on the ground and it will take immediate action.

AT THE MEETING OF THE BATTLEFIELD MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION AT GETTYSBURG ON JULY 4TH I INTRODUCED A RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THREE NEW AVENUES ON THE GROUND AND IT WILL TAKE IMMEDIATE ACTION.

WE HAVE THE BOND AT LAST.

East Cemetery Hill is the scene of encampment of the G. A. R. of Pennsylvania, where the veterans of the State are assembled to enjoy their summer outing and revive the memories of their experiences of battle and camp a quarter of a century and more ago. Assistant Quartermaster General Levering has been here for a week, and has left nothing to make the quarters the most comfortable possible. The camp is composed of 170 tents, and is ample for those who have already arrived and those who will be during the week.

The camp has been christened in honor of Ex President Hayes. Tents on both roads brought posts and delegations from various parts of the State on Saturday, the headquarters party arriving over the Reading by special late in the evening and were escorted to camp by the headquarters band, the silver concert band of Hanover. The following Department officers are present: Commandant, Thos. G. Sample, Anthony, Senior Vice Commander, Chas. F. Calvert, Hollidaysburg; Asst. Adjutant Gen., Samuel P. Town, Phila.; Ass't Quartermaster Gen., Abram Levering, Phila.; Dept Inspector, C. A. Suydam, Phila., and Dept Chaplain Wm. W. Sayers, Reading.

The "Ghosts" of Etowah, the "Hawks" of Marietta, and the "Doves" of Columbus were among the early arrivals. Later came the "Lambs," "Bears" and "Sunflowers" of Philadelphia with their numbers and accompanied by their Post ensign which are being used for the entertainment of the camp generally.
